

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

Postmaster—P. O. Box 11.
A man, suspected felon, was arrested and held in custody in $500 for one year.

Mary Fanny, daughter of George B. C. in 109 for three months.

John Park, telling lots from Patrick Joy & Co., Ltd. in Sod to answer.

Mary Ansels, Joy & Co., on a peace warrant, continued until Monday.

Parson is Young Maxson, — he is a young man, a pupil in the seminary of Williamsport, Penn, while studying in Philadelphia to pass the weeks of vacation, enlisted in the Anderson Troop, recently organized near his home. His mother, who was away, was then absent on a visit to a sister in Maryland. Informed of her return of when had occurred, she wrote her son, warning him, as in whether she should make any proceedings with a view to his release from the service, and received his answer asking her to desist from such undertaking in these patriotic words:

"I wish to know if I like the life. If you wish me to go, I am expected to do so; but if you don't like it, I will not go. I have no objection to go, but I would like to have my old pals and stripes, and I would not go as a coward without my arms in my pocket. I will give you a good reason for not going, but I will not tell you to come back.
I will not go, and out of those four, I was at one time able to obey my country's call, the only one capable of doing the right thing.
I will not go, but this is the only I can get away from."

The following is a portion of a letter from your son:

"I am a Northerner by birth, all my interests in this world are there, and I was born and brought up in the Army, and I would go as a coward without my arms in my pocket. I will give you a good reason for
not going, but I will not tell you to come back.
I will not go, and out of those four, I was at
only one capable of doing the right thing.
away from."

The Philadelphia Press says this young man is a native of Harrisburg, where some of his kindred now reside; while many of his name sleep in the old churchyard at Paxton, a historic spot, three miles from the capital of Pennsylvania.

The New York Evening Post says: "The expenditure of the Navy Department for the year ending the 30th of June last were a little over forty two and a half million dollars. This is only a six per cent of the ordinary annual expenditure of Great Britain for her navy.
Napoleon spent last year, though at peace with everybody, a third more on his navy than we did on ours. The New York Evening Post says: "It is estimated that while our navy cost us forty-two and a half millions last year, the expenditure of the service made by it amounts to about four million dollars. If this is true, it would seem that by the joint efforts of the rebels and the English blockade-runners, our navy has been very heavily self-sustaining during the past year."

The Post adds: "The Conservative says:

"About one-half of June 30, an old and wealthy man named Fry, who lived near Newark, in this county, was brutally murdered. An inquest was held on the murder, but nothing was elicited that fixed the deed upon any person."

The grand jury, now in session, from evidence that has recently come to light, have found a bill of indictment for murder in the first degree against one of the murderer's sons, and he has been arrested and is now under guard in the police station. Some of the most eminent lawyers are retained for the defense, and the trial will take place next Thursday."

INTERNAL REVENGE.—The following regulation has been made by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, relating to the omission of manufacturers. The word "agent," as used in the 7th and 15th sections of the Excise Act, is construed to mean either a person who is the exclusive agent of a man's trade, or a man or person for selling goods on comission; or by a manufacturer as his agent for the sale of his manufactured goods. In all cases the manufacturer will be required to make known to a collector or assistant assessor of the district the name and place of business of the agent so designated.

ORGANIZED INDIAN KILLERS.—An intelligent "sooper" from one of the western counties of Minnesota states that a "secret society" has been organized, having its ramifications through the western half of the State, whose avowed object is to hang or shoot every Indian suspected of having had any hand in the recent murders. Should these Indians who have been convicted be sentenced to go狂狂 by the government, then this combination is to mete out punishment whenever it can be done.

WATERPROOF BOOTS.—The Scientific American says it hot air is applied to boot soles it will make them water-proof. Let it be as hot as the leather will bear without burning, applying it with a swab and drying it by the fire. The operation may be repeated two or three times during the winter, if necessary.
It makes the surface of the leather quite hard, so that it wears longer, as well as keeps out the water.

BREAD CONTRACT.—We understand the Messrs. Kendall, Son, & Co., of Chicago, have just served an immense bread contract.
They have agreed to furnish to Capt. Simon, of this city, and Major Eaton, of New York, seven hundred and forty tons of bread to be baked and delivered in the month of December. This is said to be the heaviest single contract ever before made in the United States.

COLONEL PENICK has issued an order, and is enforcing the same, for the collection of $13,000 from the rebel sympathizers of Jackson county, Mo., for the destitute loyal families. The order debars all transfer of property until the assessment shall have been made.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has acknowledged the receipt of $100 from some person unknown, stated to be for duties and interest due to the United States. The amount has been placed to the credit of the Treasury of the United States.

Gen. Milroy has suppressed the Wheeling (Va.) press, within the limits of his command, which is a virtual suspension of the paper, because of its all-gold treasonable nature.

THE wharfboat at Greenport was sunken on Thursday morning. The goods on board were all saved without damage.

THE MINNESOTA CAPTIVES AMONG THE INDIANS.—The following from the Vermillion (D. T.) Republic gives the sequel up to November 22, the date of the paper, of the Stewart, of Sioux City, and Major Eaton, concerning the whereabouts of the Minnesota captives now in the hands of the Indians.

After the first instant, Mr. Galpin, belonging to the American Fur Company, with eleven others, in their way down from the mountains in a buckskin boat, while some 100 to 400 Indians, and 100 horses, were with their host, when they were robbed of all their provision, except what they had with them.
The Indians, however, were compelled to go back to their party in revenge. There were some 1,200 Indians in the party in addition to the two parties.

Mr. Galpin arrived at Fort Randall on the 11th instant, and reported the above facts, and is enforcing the same, for the collection of
